

SUR SANGAM at MAV

Maharaja Agrasen Vidyalaya in collaboration with Andh Kanya Prakash Grah, Manav Mandir, Ahmedabad organized a Musical Evening "Sur Sangam" on 2nd October, 2018, Tuesday. The evening was filled with several energetic, marvelous and unbelievable performances by both the schools' participants. It included dancing, singing, poem recitation, shloka chanting, mimicry, orchestra etc. The event began at about 5pm. It was inaugurated by Dr. Shobha Tyagi (Executive Director), Neeta Awasthi (Principal) and Smita Shah (Project coordinator) of AKPG and other teachers by lighting a lamp. It was followed by a beautiful prayer sung by the girls of AKPG.

The whole event was organized by the students of Class XI - Commerce and hosted by Divij Mishra, Kavya Gupta, Kshitiz Shah and Priyanshi Maheshwari. They were mentored and supported by class Teacher Soma Ghosh and Cultural Secretary, Pankaj Saxena. The colorful journey of this collaboration had begun early in August when students took the initiative of selling the creative Rakhis made by these gifted girls.

The event was a part of SEWA (Social Empowerment through Work and Action) Project. The event taught us many skills like organizing skills, leadership skills, emotional skills etc. It was filled with both excitement and teamwork. The beautiful rendition of songs by participants impressed everyone. The audience couldn't stop laughing at the mimicry of their favourite show "Tarak Mehta Ka Ooltah Chashma". The dances performed by girls, specially the traditional Garba was remarkable. Performers of both the schools jointly sang the song "Sabarmati Ke Sant" on the occasion of birthday of the Father of our Nation, Mohandas

Karamchand Gandhi. Students also remembered Lal Bahadur Shastri on his birth anniversary. Utkarsh Modi, an ex-student of batch 2012, also gave a mesmerizing and rocking mash-up was applauded by everyone.

The event was very entertaining and a successful one. The parents and audience were spell bound and couldn't stop cheering and applauding the performers. The function was concluded by the speech of the Executive Director, Dr. Shobha Tyagi followed by gifting a cheque of Rs. 7501, as a token of love to the guest school. Event ended with the serving of snacks and refreshments to everyone.
