

Scouts and guide camp at MAV

A number as large as 122 scouts and guides participated in a one-day camp organized at Maharaja Agrasen Vidyalaya recently. All enthusiastic scout masters and guide captains initiated the camp by the auspicious flag hoisting ceremony. The ceremony drew the attention of each scout and Guide. As a part of the Vigilance Awareness Week celebration, Scouts and Guides of Class VI prepared slogans, Scouts and Guides of class VII and VIII prepared posters and cartoons on the theme of 'End Corruption - Build a new India'. The entire event focused to bring awareness against corruption in these little citizens. The scouting and Guiding camp was true in its feel as Scouts and Guides were trained in various skills like hand and whistles signals, Drills with lathi and lecture and demo of moving a patient to a patient to a hospital without stretchers. Class IX Scouts and Guides demonstrated their skills of gadget making. Scouts and Guides who had prepared the best posters, slogans, cartoons and gadgets were felicitated by prizes. The entire camp concluded by joyful campfire song which echoed long after it was sung.
