The students of Class IX of Maharaja Agrasen Vidyalaya recently turned to be the crusaders of cleanliness in order to spread awareness on the importance of the topic. This was planned out as their SEWA project. Since last two weeks, the students as well as the teachers associated with the project, worked very hard in order to make it a success. The banners were designed, and the slogans thought of and worked out. Besides these, arrangements for gloves, trash bags and brooms were made.

On the day of the project, the students took to the streets with their banners, shouting out slogans. There were groups of students who picked up trash and put them into dustbins. Some even swept the streets and went inside the nearby shops in order to persuade the shopkeepers to keep their premises neat and clean.

The Executive Director, Dr. Shobha Tyagi and the Principal, Neeta Awasthi supervised the rally and encouraged the young minds. Class Teacher, Swarnadeepa Chattopadhyay, Seema Gupta, and Rajendrasinh Dodiya accompanied them onto the streets as well.
