

MAV celebrates its Foundation Day

Maharaja Agrasen Vidyalaya celebrated its Foundation Day recently with great gusto and enthusiasm. The day began with a havan and chanting of vedic shlokas, thereby creating an ambience of bliss and spirituality.

The school also organized an Inter-School Volleyball Tournament and an Inter-School Quiz Competition, in which many schools from the city participated whole-heartedly. The volleyball matches left the audience dumbfounded as all the teams were very high in spirit. But finally, it was a nail-biting finish between Army School and Maharaja Agrasen Vidyalaya. After a do-or-die competition, Army School lifted the Runners' up trophy leaving the MAVians as the winners. Both the teams received prizes from the hands of Kamlesh Kumar Agrawal, Trustee, Agrawal Sewa Sansthan, who graced the occasion as the Chief-Guest for the event.

On the other hand, P. K. Bansal, IPS & DGP (Retd) was invited as the Chief-Guest to the Inter-School Quiz Competition which was progressing simultaneously at the school auditorium. Nine schools participated in it and selection of the six best teams was done through a written test. The audience had to keep the fingers crossed for the final score; and here again the MAVians emerged as the winner, followed by Rachana School in the second and St. Kabir School in the third positions respectively. It was a wonderful experience for all those who were present on the occasion.
