

The programme at Maharaja Agrasen Vidyalaya commenced with hoisting of the tricolor and singing of the National Anthem. Thereafter, all the students and staff members assembled at the school auditorium to commemorate the event through inspiring speeches and marvelous group songs. Champalal Agrawal, chairman, Agrawal Sewa Sansthan graced the occasion as the Chief-Guest for the function. Besides that the former director, Shyam Sunder Lal Agrawal and the other office bearers of the trust also graced the function with their esteemed presence. The programme began with a speech given by one of the students, Navya Dubey of class X on the importance of our Constitution. It was followed by a beautiful rendition of the patriotic song, "Dharti Kahe Gagan..... Amar Rahe Ganatantra Hamara" by the students of class X. One of the teachers, Kavita Patara upheld the principles of the preamble, thereby highlighting the basic tenets of our Constitution. This was followed by the presentation of the patriotic song, "Chhoron Kal Ki Baten..." by the students of class VIII. This ambience was further enhanced by recitation of a poem in Hindi by Vidhan Patel of class VII. Principal, Dr. Shobha Tyagi extended a warm welcome to all the dignitaries and also conveyed her heartiest greetings to all those who were present on the occasion. One of the panelists, Ashok Gupta, too motivated the students to be respectful towards the elders and also towards the Nation, eventually. However, the Former Director, S.S.L Agrawal raised some important issues and motivated the students to work for the progress of the nation. The Supervisor of the senior section, Neeta Awasthi delivered the Vote of Thanks. Last but not the least, the entire programme was anchored very nicely by one of the students, Ananya Borah of class XI.
