

Students leaders take charge @Maharaja Agrasen

Maharaja Agrasen Vidyalaya organized its Investiture Ceremony on July 13 to declare the names of the students' core committee members. The student-leaders were nominated on the basis of their contributions in various activities held in school, self-discipline, maintaining discipline in school, performances in scholastic and co-scholastic areas etc. Significantly enough, the school authorities have entrusted the responsibilities on these students as the teachers have shown faith in them.

Archi Shah and Aditya Chakraborty have been chosen as the vidyalaya Captains, while Riya Jethmalani, Navya Dubey, Samyak Bharwad and Shrey Patel were selected as the Vidyalaya Vice-Captains. Dhruvi Naik and Pratik Desai have been selected as Sports Captains, while Prachi Randheria and Aniket Nambisan have been chosen as Sports Vice-Captains.

The Principal, Neeta Awasthi announced the names of the students and congratulated them on being inducted into the student council. The Director, Dr. Shobha Tyagi pinned badges to the student leaders and inspired them to become efficient leaders. The entire programme was successfully organized by the Cultural Co-ordinator, Pankaj Saxena. Last but not the least, all the student leaders, including the House Captains and Vice Captains, took pledge to protect and preserve the school's ideology, principles and environment. Finally, the programme came to an end with Dhruvi Naik presenting the vote of thanks.
