

MAHARAJA AGRASEN VIDYALAYA

"It is our duty to pay for our liberty with our own blood". With this spirit in mind, the students and all the staff members of Maharaja Agrasen Vidyalaya celebrated the 71st Independence Day with full vigour and gusto. The whole school assembled in the premises at about 8:45 in the morning that had a mystique patriotic nostalgia in it. Thereafter, the celebration began with hoisting of the National Flag by chief guest, Champalaji Agrawal, Chairman, Agrawal Sewa Sansthan. The National Anthem echoed at every nook and corner of the school building as everyone present there sang it wholeheartedly. "Vatan ki Raah Mey Vatan key Naujawan Shaheed Hon" - the song brought tears to the eyes of all those who were present, as everyone sang it enthusiastically. The Principal, Neeta Awasthi welcomed the chief guest and all the other dignitaries and urged the students to practice cleanliness at their own level to show their spirit of patriotism. She also paid tribute to all the freedom fighters who sacrificed their lives for the nation. The Executive Director, Dr. Shobha Tyagi made everyone take a pledge to carry out their responsibilities to remove the social evils like poverty, corruption, unclean habits etc. and motivated the gathering, especially the students, to prepare themselves to wipe out these social evils from the nation. The entire programme was anchored nicely by the school Captain, Aditya Chakraborty.
